Twitter: If you could be any of the dogs in The Not Perfect Hat Club, which would you want to be and why?

Reading: If you were on vacation last week, please use this week to catch up on the readings of Chapters 10, 11 and 12. If you have already read those chapters, go straight to the creative activities below.

Creative Activities: Creating a Flyball Team - Part 2

A Canine Portrait of Me!

Which of the members of the Not Perfect Hat Club canine team do you feel is the most like you?

1. Choose one of the members of the Not Perfect Hat Club Flyball team.
2. Using Ms. Jenaia's instructions from the video, draw a portrait of yourself as a dog.
3. Write a short paragraph telling us why you chose that dog and what your portrait says about you. Here is an example you can follow:

The dog I chose was (add the name)

I chose him/her because he/she is (use adjectives)

I think (add dog's name) is like me because (tell us why)

Creating a Flyball Team

Divide your class into groups of 4 or 6. Each group will be a different a Flyball team. Each group should work on the exercises below.

Name and Colors

Have the name and colors your chose last week ready to go.

Clothing

1. Do you want your team to wear matching hats, shirts, pants and shoes? Make a list of clothing you'd like your team to wear.
2. How would you put your team colors on your clothes? For example, would you like your clothes to be one color with stripes? Here are some examples to give you ideas:

3. Using the templates below add colors, designs and logos to your clothes then share with everyone on your blogs and Twitter:
